[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JUNE 24.

The Banks and Congress.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The Herald's Louisville special dispatch says the New York National Banks recently sent circulars asking all National Banks one-sixteenth per cent. on their capital, to raise a fund to defeat adverse legislation by Congress. Should all the banks respond, the fund will amount to over $2,000,000.

The Indian War.

St. Louis, June 22.—Omaha dispatches state that Gen. Sherman arrived at that place to day from North Platte and from Fort Sedgwick. Gen Sanborn, also Aulrich, special Indian Agent, had arrived at Laramie. Sanborn reports that Spotted Tail was at Laramie trying in good faith to make some amicable adjustment of the Indian troubles. A few days ago he showed his sincerity by seizing and turning over to Gen. Sherman a white man who had proposed to him to attack a train near by. The man is now in custody at North Platte. Sanborn also reports the establishment of friendly relations with the Crows, and thinks that the troubles will soon be settled with all the tribes except the Cheyennes. Gen. Augur was en route from the Black Hills to Laramie.

TOPEKA, Kansas, June 22.—Gen Hancock has gone to Denver in consequence of Indian troubles. It is believed he will be able to keep the route open, but more troops will be required. It is expected a regiment of Kansas troops will be called into service.

ST. JOSEPH, June 22.—Advices from Snake River, Colorado Territory, report a fall of five feet of snow on the 31st day of May.

Reconstruction—Surveys in Dacotah.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The President has issued instructions, through the Adjutant General, to military commanders in the South in accordance with the Attorney General Stanberry's interpretation of the reconstruction law.
The Surveyor General of Dacotah has transmitted for approval a contract for the survey of the public lands along Red river to the north, adjoining the Pembina settlement.

Southern Crops.

CHARLESTON, June 22.—Reports from many portions of the South state that it is feared that the continued heavy rains will seriously injure the wheat and cotton crops. There have been heavy freshets in the rivers and the low lands are overflowed in many places.

Vermont Politics.

MONTPELIER, Vt., June 22.—The Democratic Convention to-day nominated J. L. Edwards for Governor. Resolutions were adopted deploring and condemning the establishment and exercise of military power over the Southern portion of the Union.

Fire at Nashville.

NASHVILLE, June 22.—A fire here to-day destroyed the workshops on the east of the Penitentiary, containing a large quantity of cabinet work, etc. Loss, $30,000, mostly falling on the lessees.

The President in Boston.

BOSTON, June 22.—The President was received by a military escort near the city and was met by a delegation of the city authorities. Salutes were fired and the thousands assembled cheered him repeatedly. Three regiments of infantry, a battalion of cavalry and a full company of marines were paraded in line, waiting to receive the President. The streets and windows were densely filled with spectators. The President was escorted to the Tremont House, where the Mayor and prominent citizens paid their respects. Gov. Bullock was introduced and made a brief speech, welcoming the President to Massachusetts. He said, "Our citizens desire to manifest in every possible manner their respect for those representing the national American Union. Many of your predecessors have visited New England from time to time. Your visit, like theirs, excites our devotion to the Union of those States and respect for those who, in official position, represent the Government of the whole country. I trust you will prolong your stay in Massachusetts sufficiently to enable its citizens to manifest their high regard for your office and for yourself personally."
The President in reply expressed thanks for the welcome extended to him; he referred to the history of Massachusetts in connection with the war, and said it was peculiarly gratifying to him to receive such a welcome on visiting Massachusetts under such circumstances.
The Governor then introduced his Staff to the President and Secretary Seward. The party were afterward shown to their rooms.

Prosecution for Dueling.

CHARLESTON, June 22.—The Grand Jury after receiving special instructions, indicted all the parties concerned in the late fatal duel, for murder. Their trial is expected to come off next week.

NEW YORK, June 22.—In port at Montevideo, May 19th, the Swallow for San Francisco, repairing.

The Presidential Tour.

BOSTON, June 22.—The President was serenaded to-night and made a brief speech. Seward also responded to the calls of the assemblage. In the course of his remarks he said: "Give me assurance that for twenty, thirty or forty years there shall not again be unhealthful resistance by armed force against the President bearing the authority of the United States, and I will give you a contract for the whole of the American continent, and the control of the world." Both the President and Seward were vigorously applauded.

Storm at Savannah.

SAVANNAH, June 22.—A storm has been raging here since morning. Trees are uprooted in great numbers, and private property badly damaged. Several vessels were blown from their moorings, but were secured with but slight damage.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, June 23.—The Herald's New Orleans special says Otterbury, just appointed Minister to Mexico, went to Washington last fall ostensibly to confer with the State Department, but really to negotiate for diplomatic recognition of the Government of Maximilian, for which service the Imperialists paid him handsomely.
The President has requested Sheridan to extend the time for registration in Louisiana to the 1st of August. The total number of voters registered is 60,111, only 24,525 of whom are white—balance colored. This largely exceeds the Presidential vote of 1864.
NEW YORK, June 22.—Sonorita Juarez, daughter of the President of Mexico, is in the Presidential party.
Western Union Telegraph Stock, 69¾.
The Tribune's special says Wolseley will be attached to the military jurisdiction of Gen. Rosecrans. The original text of the treaty was officially published to-day.

Wheat and Flour Market.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The World says the prices of flour and wheat have touched bottom, because the decline has been sufficient to permit the execution of export orders, and we have no more in store than is necessary to carry us through. Prices must raise above present quotations.
The Times says the average decline in low grades of flour during the past thirty days has been 33 per cent. Every day's sunshine for ten days to come, will favor the consumer.

BY ALANTIC CABLE.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The corps Legislatif has adjourned. The Emperor has postponed giving the details of the proposed reforms until November.
NEW YORK, June 22.—The Herald's cable special from Birmingham says the bull which succeeded the riot of last Tuesday continues. The city police are still armed with cutlasses, five hundred special constables were sworn in, but two hundred were also wards discharged. Murphy, the anti-popery lecturer makes speeches every night and disturbance may break out again.
BERLIN, June 23.—The constitution of the North German Confederacy having been ratified by all the States comprising that body, will be officially promulgated on Thursday next.
LONDON, June 22.—Advices from the continent say that the feeling now prevalent at Paris and Berlin is that the relations existing between the Emperor Napoleon and King of Prussia are not cordial.
HAAKE'S CONTENT, June 22.—The repaired cable continues to work perfectly, and may now be considered as reliable as though no damage had occurred. It was found to be absolutely crushed, notwithstanding its having an iron armor for the length of 100 feet.

The New China Steamer "Great Republic."

[From the N. Y. World, May 15.]

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company have just completed the largest ship ever built in any American shipyard for commercial purposes, and which is intended for the China Line, from San Francisco to China. The Great Republic, the steamship referred to, is worthy of more than a passing notice, not merely because of her great size and strength, but because she is to be instrumental in opening a trade with Asia, which makes an era in American progress and enterprise. Feet and inches convey but a poor idea of the extent of a ship so symmetrically built as the Great Republic, but for the information of ### Security Wanted.

There is a class of men who are continually appealing to the people to restore the Democratic party to power. Readers of a certain class of partisan newspapers in Oregon are familiar with these exhortations. But those who put forth such moving appeals omit one very important matter. They ask the people to give the country up to the control of their party, but do not tell the people what security they have to offer against the occurrence of another rebellion.

That is not a very safe party which has shown that it cannot conduct the Government without involving it in difficulties which can only be settled by taking arms. That is not a very safe party which has shown that its principles, pushed to their natural conclusion, must lead to rebellion and plunge the country into civil war. That is not a very safe party, which, though controlling every department of Government, and able to enforce its own doctrines and principles in every particular and to the fullest extent, did nevertheless so completely disarrange the governmental machinery and utterly spoil its legitimate workings as to bring affairs to a full stop and make it necessary for more skilful hands to assume control. In short, that is not a very safe party which has shown that it cannot conduct the Government without running it aground.

Therefore when the people are asked to let this party resume control, it is natural for them to ask it what security it proposes to give that its former conduct will not be repeated. It is natural for them to demand an assurance that there shall not be another rebellion. It is not pleasant to be obliged to take arms to extricate the country from the difficulties into which an adherence to the principles of this party has once plunged it, and into which an adherence to like principles would plunge it again. Before that party is trusted another time it would be wise and right to demand security from a recurrence of consequences like these.

And how can it give the assurance that is demanded? By reforming its principles, abandoning its objectionable and dangerous doctrines and adopting ideas which at least have the merit of not having been proved utterly incompatible with the existence and peaceful progress of the country. But does it propose to do this? Not for a moment. It insists on maintaining its old dogmas; and without promising the least amendment, asks the people to support the very same theory and policy of government that brought on the crisis of 1860-61. As the people do not wish to fight every few years to correct the evils which follow from an adherence to Democratic principles, and as they do not desire to take arms more than once in a lifetime to rescue the country from the difficulties into which Democratic theories must inevitably drive it, they will wait sometime yet before listening favorably to the appeals of that party for restoration to power. So long as it adheres to the principles on which secession was undertaken and justified, and so long as it insists that the attempt to create a Southern Confederacy was neither rebellious nor treasonable, it may rely on being able to command only a minority of the votes of the people.

Maximilian's Bloody Decree.

Our Government is using its influence to save Maximilian from death, and it is to be hoped that the intercession will prevail. But deprecate as we may the use of violence against the usurper, it cannot be denied that the provocation of the Mexican people has been very great and that they have no small excuse for retaliation. In 1865 Maximilian issued a bloody decree against the leaders of the Republican army, under which a great number of officers who had been made prisoners in regular warfare were inhumanly butchered. The following is the substance of this sanguinary order:

Articles 1 and 2 provide that all persons found in arms against the Empire, "whether they proclaim or not any political principles, and whatever their number, organization or character," shall, within twenty-four hours after their capture, be tried summarily by Court Martial, by the officer who captured them, and if found guilty, if only of the fact of belonging to the band, shall suffer death within twenty-four hours of the capture. And Article 15 prohibits any request for pardon being made. Then there is another Article providing that any person who shall supply the Liberals with money or other means "or put within their reach subsistence," shall suffer death as in article 1 provided.

If the invasion of Mexico under the circumstances which brought Maximilian to that country had not itself been enough to exasperate the Mexicans against him, the promulgation of this infamous decree and its subsequent enforcement, were sufficient to justify a resort to almost any measure of retaliation against the invaders. Two Generals, ten Colonels, and a great number of subordinate officers are known to have been shot under this order. But while it cannot be said that retaliation upon the cruel usurper is undeserved, it is not likely that he will be harmed. His execution would involve the Mexican Government in fresh troubles with France and Austria, and therefore the humane course is the wiser one.

TREATY WITH THE NEZ PERCES INDIANS.—A Council was held at Lapwai on the 17th inst., at which Governor Ballard of Idaho Territory, with Agents O'Neil and Hough, Dr. Newell, Major Truax and other persons met the chiefs of the Nez Perces Indians and portions of the tribe, numbering 500 or 600 in all. The object of the Council was to announce to the Indians the ratification by the Senate of the treaty which was entered into with their tribe in 1863, and to fully explain to them its provisions and requirements. The Indians signified that they were satisfied with the treaty. A large and valuable tract of land is reserved for them to which they are to remove within one year. The tribe is allowed to select a head chief and two subordinate chiefs, who are each to receive five hundred dollars a year and have a house built and furnished and ten acres of ground ploughed. The Government agrees to expend $262,500 in removing the Indians to the Reservation, building school houses, mills, shops, dwellings, etc., and in purchasing tools and implements for the general purposes of husbandry. These expenditures are to be exclusive of the regular annuities which the treaty provides for.

M. P. Berry, of Salem, Oregon, writes that in 1862 a party of prospectors, who entered Russia America from British Columbia, and on the Stickeen river, 300 miles from its mouth, found gold and silver mines of great wealth. They worked with hand rockers for eight days, and realized $13-50 per day in native silver, and $1,100 in the aggregate in gold. The silver was washed out in pieces sometimes as large as a quarter of a dollar. They also found rubies and agates, and on Bristol river, copper and coal croppings. Mr. Berry writes this to Secretary Seward, in a letter dated April 9th, 1867.

Copperheads complain of their political opponents for keeping alive the passions of the war. Now suppose the Copperheads had as good a thing as this against their political opponents, would they ever cease harping upon it? Would they not keep the passions thus engendered at a white heat during this generation at least? Why they have not yet ceased declaiming in most indignant manner against the poor little weak Hartford Convention that sat more than half a century ago.

The Herald publishes a long article about the "return of the era of common sense," the "revival of good feeling," etc. The New York Day Book also talks about the "era of good feeling," and proposes to hasten it by making Jefferson Davis the Democratic candidate for President next year. This plan is commended to the Herald's consideration.

STATE ITEMS.

The Klamath Indians, about 500 strong, are now on the Klamath plain, digging their winters supply of Camas.

The Sentinel of the 22d says: During the present week Messrs. I. D. and L. B. Applegate purchased about fifteen hundred ewes and lambs, that have just arrived from Polk county. They are first class stock sheep, and cost, an average of two dollars per head, delivered in this valley.

They are trying to get up an excitement about diamonds in Jackson county. The Sentinel says: A friend writes from Wise's Camp, that Mr. Stephen Gale found a diamond while "panning out," a few days since. It has been examined in the dark, and pronounced a genuine brilliant. We give the information for what it is worth, and are inclined to think that when examined by competent judges, the precious stone will be pronounced a rock crystal, similar to those found in abundance in California and Owyhee and which are of but little value.

A Jacksonville paper relates the following: The roads being bad, a detachment of five men from Co. I, stationed at Mt. Klamath, was sent out on the 14th inst., to meet and guide in Co. "A," of the 1st U. S. Cavalry, which was supposed to be on the way from Camp Bidwell to Ft. Klamath. The detachment traveled about forty-five miles the first day, and camped at the Council grounds, on Sprague's river. About ten o'clock that night, immediately after the guard had passed around the horses, two of them broke away and went off at full speed. The camp was at once aroused, and a pursuit made. The horses were taken up a brushy mountain side, and the pursuers soon lost sight of them in the darkness. The same night, nine horses were driven off from some Klamath Indians, who were camped about eight miles from the soldiers' camp. A detachment of 14 men (with two Indians), under Sergeant Stearns, went in pursuit, but at last accounts they had not returned.

A Modest Office Seeker.

An election was recently held in one of the Wards of Victoria for City Councillor. At the close of the poll the defeated candidate, one Ennis, stepped forward and addressed the crowd in the following extremely modest manner. The performance is absolutely inimitable, and none of the speeches delivered at the famous borough election at Etanswill or on any other occasion which authentic history has recorded, can be at all compared with it. Here is the admirable production:

Gentlemen and Fellow-Citizens—Inasmuch as you have by the right of franchise disposed of your votes in favor of another candidate, who I conceive is in no way entitled to hold the position, as he is not on the list of voters; therefore, gentlemen, you will not think that I aspired for the position; but you have failed, gentlemen, in carrying your point, because he is disqualified; therefore, I emphatically protest against his return.

Gentlemen, if you had elected me I should have shown you the manner in which affairs ought to be carried out. I should, fellow-citizens, have protected the unfortunate females and fatherless children. I am possessed of charitable feeling, and, gentlemen, I should have spent a fortune among you in order to carry those sentiments out. Thus, by the way, you have lost a superior mind—one stored with reason and intellect.

Gentlemen, I do not possess the powers of oratory, but I will say you have cast your votes to the winds, and you will find that you have lost a man of sound judgment and reasoning qualifications, which is not in the man you have elected.

Gentlemen, I intend to run again, and will call upon you and show you my talent in discussing the merits of crim. con.

A THROUGH TRIP.—An article on the Pacific Railway, in the Chicago Tribune, May 21st, predicts that the through trip will be made from Chicago to San Francisco in 1870. The Central Pacific Company have iron enough on hand to complete this end of the route to the north bend of the Humboldt, 225 miles east of Cisco. They have 10,000 hands at work, and expect to raise the number to 15,000 this summer. The Union Pacific folks have the iron to lay down their end of the road 217 miles west of the Crossing of the North Platte, which reaches the base of the Black Hills—517 miles from Omaha, and 1,007 miles from Chicago. Within a year from this date, the Tribune thinks, trains of cars will roll into Chicago from the Rocky Mountains. It says, further:

By September, Gov. Stanford, of the Central, and Mr Durant, of the Union Pacific, will each be about 600 miles from Salt Lake; but Gov. Stanford will be over the mountains, and Mr. Durant will then have to face the real difficulties of his task. But no part of the line between the head of Lodge Pole Creek and Salt Lake is at all to be compared with the Sierra Nevada Mountains or the crossing of the Pennsylvania Central over the Alleghanies If, therefore, during the next summer, work be commenced in the mountains east of Salt Lake, Mr. Durant can reach the City of the Saints by the Fourth of July, 1870. This the managers of the Union Pacific are determined to accomplish if it is in the power of men and money to do it."

In the Insane Asylum at Stockton, California, there are now seven hundred and twenty patients.

FAMILY DYE COLORS.—After a careful and continuous use of the Family Dye Colors of Howe & Stevens for five years, the public with one voice have declared enthusiastically in their favor. It would be strange if they did not, for they are the only dyes in market people will buy. Firm, beautiful, easily used, safe—what wonder they are so popular. Sold by Smith & Davis.

A SPLENDID INSTRUMENT.—We saw, yesterday, at J. L. Parrish & Co's something new in the way of an organ—a French instrument called the Organ Harmonium—invented by Alphonse Rodolphe. It is a very considerable modification of the organ as we have them from the American manufactories. It is provided with sixteen stops, each of which exercises a distinct and peculiar effect upon the tone. The bass stops are the Forte, Jeu Doux, Cello, Sweet Bassoon, Clarion, Bourdon, English Horn, the treble stops are Expression, Tremolo, Scotch Bagpipe, Flute, Clarionette, Fife, Hautbois, Voix Celesto, Forte, and Knee or Full Expression. The effect of these stops in changing the tone is most surprising. For instance: from the flute to Voix Celeste with Full Expression, the tone changes from what sounds precisely like a soft flute, to the full grand harmony which we would expect from an Angel choir—what the name imports. The Key-Board is movable and can be adjusted to any key, to any instrument, or to the voice of any singer. Other changes are no less surprising. The instruments are of the most perfect workmanship and of the highest finish; have taken the first medals at all the great European Expositions. The prices range from $175, to $500. Persons in want of an instrument should call and see them, for it is impossible to get a correct idea of them, except from personal inspection. J. L. Parrish & Co., are sole agents for the Pacific coast.

A SEA WALL.—The great work of erecting a massive sea wall around the entire city front has been commenced in San Francisco. The sea wall once finished San Francisco will have as fine a harbor as any in the United States. KOHN & PISHEL, No 91 Front street have adopted a rule of trading that is as beneficial to them as the sea wall to San Francisco. They ask but one price for their fine and custom-made Clothing, Dry Goods, etc., and that price is so low that every person is satisfied that it requires no advertised figures to prove it, as facts are more positive proofs.

CHOLERA.

MR. PERRY DAVIS:—The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc, THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine glass full of hot water. I am confident, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera in the summer of 1843. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worse case in an hour, or, at the most, half a day. I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the mouth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

RUSSIA SALVE!
[ESTABLISHED 1866.]
Price 25 Cents per Box.
Is the Universal Remedy for

BURNS, SCALDS, CUTS, BRUISES, and all FLESH WOUNDS; for CHILBLAINS, CHAPPED HANDS, PILES and OLD SCROFULOUS SORES; ERUPTIONS, BLOTCHES, SALT RHEUM, and all CUTANEOU DISEASES.

REDDING'S RUSSIA SALVE is a purely Vegetable Ointment, made from the very best materials, and combines in itself greater HEALING POWERS than any other preparation before the public. Its timely application has been the means of saving thousands of valuable lives, of relieving a vast amount of suffering, and wherever used has proved itself in reality A BOON TO SUFFERING HUMANITY.

SIXTY YEARS' GENERAL USE OF THE RUSSIA SALVE IS A NOBLE GUARANTEE OF ITS INCOMPARABLE VIRTUES AS A HEALING OINTMENT.

The very large sale of REDDING'S RUSSIA SALVE, during the past sixty years, has given rise to hundreds of unworthy imitations, but throughout all opposition, the RUSSIA SALVE maintains its supremacy as a reliable preparation, having a steady and permanent sale, and never deteriorating in quality, by age or climate, and is sold to dealers at a price enabling them to realize a generous profit by its sale.

For sale by all Druggists and Apothecaries.

CORN JUICE.—Yesterday we heard an anecdote related of one of Oregon's former conspicuous characters, from the lips of a gentleman who often tells a good anecdote, and which is universally true. We crave pardon for introducing it, but as the Fourth of July is near at hand, it may serve as a warning to those who may be called upon to "orate" on that glorious occasion in the year 1867, "Bill" Farrar delivered a Fourth of July address on the plaza in this city, on which he necessarily spent some time in the preparation. As a precaution against hoarseness and to strengthen his nerves for the effort, he "fortified" himself with a superior article of good whisky, which he placed on the stand beside him. In such a vessel that his auditors would naturally enough think it contained water. During the address he, as a matter of course, often partook of the beverage. Now, it may so pass that a certain humane-minded old lady became dry also, and thinking water, as it always is, quite free to the thirsty, she desired her honest-minded husband to reach her the vessel that she might slake her thirst, which he of course did. The old lady placed it to her lips without examining the contents, and gulped down a goodly dose, but quicker than we can write it, the old lady had spirted out all that was available, and ejaculated with a decided emphasis—"Corn juice, old man! Corn juice!" Of course the beauty of that address was spoiled as far as the old lady was concerned, and our orator was actually let down from the height to which his fancy and patriotism had just then carried him, with a decided "slump."

PASSENGERS PER FREIGHT BY THE ORIFLAMME.—The following are the passengers berthed for a trip to San Francisco by the Oriflamme: B. F. Scott and wife, Miss A Nickerson, John Harvey, Mrs V Mills, D W Haines, A McDonald, James Shaw, H Moffitt, C Smith, James Bonsell, J B Emory, H C Northrup, Dr G P S Tomlinson, steward servant, P Hitchcogen, Mrs E J Johnson, S Abrahamson, Wm L Dutton, J Shaw, Miss Mary Moon and boy, A T Dustan and wife, E S Tolles, Major George McCumber and wife, O S Prentiss and wife, S S Thompson, J Hoskins, L Waterman, Mrs A Blamerus, R. Hutcherson, M E Landenslager, P B Smith, H James, A Well, wife and two children, Miss Addie Lafferty, John Walsh, H C Slate, A C R Shaw, E P Fitzgerald, Col West, Wells, Fargo and Company's Messenger, and fifteen others.

The following is the freight taken by the same vessel: 9,344 qr. sks flour, 334 gunnies bacon, 20 cases bacon, 20 bbls salmon, 27 half bbls salmon, 7 half bbls lard, 18 boxes eggs, 3 pkgs furs, 27 cases lard, 103 hides, 17 half hides, 17 pc lumber, 25 half bbls butter, 254 bales wool, 3 bales mdse, 15 cases mdse, 16 pkgs mdse, 100 half bbls dried apples, 4 cases bottles, 5 horses, 16 bales paper.

"CORRECTION."—We beg to correct the statement made in the Herald yesterday that the OREGONIAN of Tuesday last (or in any other issue) had in effect said that "no other company than the Washington Guard made any preparation to celebrate the coming Fourth of July." We did not make any such statement. We stated in our issue of Monday morning that the "Guard" had made no display, and their invitation as advertised had not been responded to. We said nothing about the Fenians having made any attempt to accomplish the same object for the very good reason that it did not come to our notice. Nor did we say that the "Guard" was the only organization which had made an effort toward a celebration. If you will "put your foot in it," why of course it becomes our duty to set the matter right.

GRAND LODGE ELECTION.—The following officers were yesterday elected for the ensuing Masonical year. A. A Smith, G. M.; W. D. Hare, D. G. M.; D. G. Clark, S. G. W.; A. B Richardson, J. G. W.; R. F Brown, G. G., J. R. Burford, G. S.; J. R. Bayley, G. of C. or E. F. J. B. Wythe G. Chaplain; T. Benson G. Chaplain, G. Myers, G. Marshal, H. Baxer, S. G. D., Sam'l Hughes, J. G. D., Jacob Gonser G. Standard Bearer, Hiram Smith G. Sword Bearer. A. G. Walling, J. L. Loudon, G. Stewards; F. Nanson G. Tyler. The installation ceremonies took place at Uro Fire Hall last evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Wythe delivered the installation address.

RIVER COACH.—Jamison, the expressman, will send an extra coach to Hillsboro and Forest Grove on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, to accommodate the Masons from Washington county, returning from the session of the Grand Lodge. Jamison has procured a splendid coach, manufactured in our city by W. E. Cooper & Co., which it certainly will be a luxury to ride in. It was on our streets yesterday, and many supposed it to be an imported article, and were surprised that so fine a piece of work should be turned out in Portland.

|---|---|
| Wells, Fargo & Co. | $125,000 |
| Ladd & Tilton | 20,000 |
| By private hands, estimated | 20,000 |
| Total | $175,000 |

Goldsmith & Bro. shipped through Wells, Fargo & Co.

CORRECTION.—In the article of yesterday, speaking of the examination at the Female Seminary, the original manuscript was so changed as to cause some ludicrous and mortifying errors. "God bless my Father" should have read "God Save my Father;" "forring the Shrew" to "for the Shrew." With the assistance of a lively imagination the balance of the item may perhaps be understood.

SHOT.—A soldier, on Monday night, entered the premises of Capt. Hicks of Vancouver, and in addition to fruit gathering added that of malicious injury to fruit trees, cutting off the limbs and girdling a cherry tree or two. Capt. Hicks fired a load of shot at the intruder and wounded him, but not fatally. This morning a surgeon was engaged in extracting the shot from the wound.

GONE.—Prof. Laudensiager, President of the National College, sailed on the Oriflamme last evening for San Francisco, where he goes to open a school in connection with the one here, and introduce the same course of practical instruction. Prof. DeFrance will in future have charge of the college in this place. We are requested to say that there will be no vacation, as some have supposed.

IMPORTANT SALE.—To-day at 10 A. M., at the Court House door, Marshal Hoyt will sell some fifty lots for delinquent city taxes. Parties wishing to invest will find this a good speculation, as a deed conveying all right, title and interest to land sold for such taxes will be given immediately to parties purchasing the land, and no subsequent confirmation is required.

RECREANT.—Capt. Trumbull has chartered the Okanagan, and on the Fourth of July will make an excursion to Vancouver. The Fannie Troup and Okanagan will be lashed together and then make the trip. This is quite a novelty, and we think will prove a success among the excursionists. Full particulars will be advertised to-morrow.

GOING TO FARMING.—The legal profession being at present unprofitable, Messrs. S. A. Moreland and C. Dolph, Esqs., have gone to farming. We yesterday witnessed their first efforts,—they were engaged in planting wheat, having procured a flower box and were busily engaged in sowing that they might reap.

THE VANCOUVER INVITATION.—No 2, we understand, respectfully declines the invitation of the Vancouver Fire Department to assist them in celebrating the coming Fourth at that town. We understand, also, that on the decision of No. 2 rests the final determination of the Department.

A "HAPPY" LOAD.—The superannuated little steamer Eagle was yesterday tugging, blowing, snorting, hauling, and towing at a raft of logs, as long if not longer, than the Pacific coast "mural law," and finally succeeded in landing them up the river at the saw mill.

A QUARREL.—On Monday evening there was a sort of a family row above the bridge on Front street. We did not learn the particulars—nor did we care to. If families will quarrel, they ought to endeavor to keep it from the public, just for the sake of decency.

ELECTION.—The following are the officers elect of Ellen Encampment No 1, I. O of O F, for the following year: J. H. Lyon, C. P.; Joseph Bachman, H P.; C Barchardt, S. W.; E F Albright, Scribe; O. Ellis, Treasurer; J. N. Dolph, J. W.

TREASURE.—The Senator brought down the following freight yesterday: 12 barrels dried apples, 46 bales of wool, 2,073 sacks flour, 7 cases bacon, 6 half barrels produce, 10 boxes merchandise, 3 boxes eggs, 13 boxes cheese, 15 sacks potatoes.

RETURNED.—Capt. Wolf, of the steamer Cascades, whom ill health caused him to suspend his labors, has been spending some time at the Umatilla Springs under the advice of his physician, arrived yesterday much improved.

MANUFACTORIES.—In our peregrinations and meanderings around the city, we could not help observing one important item, and that is while many business men complain of a commercial depression, our manufactories are constantly at work, turning out large quantities of their different wares, which betokens the fact that if depression does exist, it does not reach the substratum of our prosperity, and necessarily is but ephemeral and will soon disappear. The only exception in our manufacturing establishments, from which we heard any complaint, was Mr. Hickox's Soap Factory. The only way we could account for it was that people are becoming less faithful in one in their appearance, and have no desire to remove the dirt which soon mistates on their persons. However, Mr. Hickox says as soon as the waters of the Willamette recede, he will undoubtedly turn out the usual amount of his A No. 1 Soap.

COMPLIMENTARY.—A young man met us a day or two since and remarked—"Mr. Gradon, will you please tell me where I can find Judge Stout's office?" We blushed and h'em'd and h'aw'd and at last gave him the desired information. We are at a loss to know whether a "local" should be proud of being taken for his Honor, or his Honor for a "local"! However, one of these days we will procure a summer hat, and then Mr. Gradon will be safe from any left-handed compliments, as from the peculiarity in that respect arises the want of identity on the part of unobserving ones.

A NAME.—We cannot help thinking but that Horace Greeley has added to his earthly immortality by christening our newly acquired territory up north. "Walrusia" certainly has some signification. Walrus—it is supposed that lots of them inhabit that region,—and the "sia" is the last syllable of the name of the Government who negotiated the extensive domain to us. We rather like the name.

THE FERRY LANDING.—Mr Hancock, who has charge of the Macadamized Road, informs us that the landing at the White House is now in the best of order, and that there is no difficulty in getting on and off the ferry-boat.

LOST AND FOUND.—A little child of Mr Matthieu, corner of Second and Stark street, two or three years old, was yesterday lost and found,—policeman O'Connor having secured to the agonized parents their lost babe.

DEPARTS.—The schooner Orathy is receiving freight, consisting principally of flour and wheat, at Couch & Flanders' wharf, and will depart for Port Townsend and Victoria this evening or to-morrow morning.

ACCEPTED.—Hon. J. N. Dolph was invited and has accepted an invitation to deliver an address to the Good Templars of Hillsboro, at a pic-nic to be held on Friday, the 24th day of July.

GOES BELOW.—Maj. Foster, of Fort Vancouver, and Mr Ten Broeck, Chief of the Medical Department of Columbia, went below yesterday. The latter is en route for the States.

QUERY.—Would it not be just, legal, proper, right, judicious and praiseworthy for our City Council to take the initiatory steps toward a celebration of the Fourth of July?

IN TOWN.—Among the many persons attending the Masonic Grand Lodge is Bro Upton of the Courier, who remains over to-day and returns to Lafayetteon Thursday.

MESSAGE.—Some kind friend has addressed a telegraphic message to Miss E. Jannette Way, which can be had by calling on the gallant telegraph operator.

TWO FANES.—The Oriflamme, yesterday, took down two beautiful young fanes, consigned to parties in San Francisco.

ARRIVED.—Indian Agent O'Neil for the Ft Lapwai country, arrived on the Cascades yesterday.

TO BE LET.—The pews in Trinity Church will be let to-morrow at 10 o'clock A. M.

CITY COUNCIL.—The last session of the old Council will take place this evening.

Kisses!

One kiss on the forehead, "Sweet," sedately,
As such a kiss should of course be taken,
Not coldly, quite, but solemn and stately,
Like my love for you, when it first did waken;
Then my thoughts were mixed in the queerest way,
Love's "still small voice" was so tender and true,
I scarcely know, as I knelt to pray,
If I thought most of Heaven, or you

Two kisses now, on either cheek,
For the love that thrives, as it grew more human,
Though I scarcely ventured to think or speak;
Of my Darling yet, as a simple woman,
Two kisses, "Sweet," on each blooming cheek,
For a love outgrowing its solemn coldness,
Though still I found it hard to speak,
And whisper all my hopeful boldness.

And now a score, a hundred more,
From ripe red lips, "Dear Love" of thine,
Whisper those three words, o'er and o'er,
And give me kisses, "Sweet," for mine!
A thousand kisses, each dearer seeming,
Good-bye, love—solemn and superhuman,
I loved an Angel in love's first dreaming,
But now I love a charming woman.

THE "SPOTTSWOOD," RICHMOND, VA., }
May 12, 1867. }

In castin a retrospective glance backered over the pathway uv the past, I kin see my mistakes with I her made. I haven't allus made the most uv opportunities—I hev doutid when doutin was a crime, and I hev stood shivrin on the brink and feared to launch away when on the tother side uv the Jordon was pelf and profit. Our foreskin isn't allus as good as our hindskin. The great error uv my life was in not plungin headlong into the war as a Confedrit Major General, distinguished myself for orotlity to Fedral prisoners and bein at the close uv the fratricidal struggle rescoved and embraced as a long-lost brother by the Northern people (lettin em kill fattid calves for me), by the Southern people. In this situation a man has two strings to his bow. He brings to his support the two extremes. He fetches together Horris Greely from the one side and Genral Boregard from the tother—they embrace, and standin onto both their shoulders he has what may be called a soft thing uv it.

I was led into these train of reflections by the experience I hev had with our sainted chief Jefferson Davis. I was sent hither by the President to see that everything was done for the comfort uv the illustrus man that cood be done, on the occasion uv his contemplated trip to Richmond. Particularly I was charged to see that everything calkulatid to jar onto his sensitive feelins be removed—everything wich cood wound his sensitiveness uv hearin, seein or smellin.

The grate man had consentid to go. He had bin, he felt, illegally deprived uv liberty—unconstitoushly, in fact—and of he should consult his own feelins he would remane, but to forgive wus divine. Vowin these proceedins in the like uv an apology he wood go.

The day had arrived. The steamer wus at the Fortress carefully prepared to receive its illustrious burden. It had been thoroughly cleaned and fumigated, the cabin bed bin nouly furnisht, and speshal alterashons made for the President and party. Ther was Yoonited States officers and soljers aboard, but out uv respect for the feelins uv their illustrious "prisner," as he is technically called, they kep themselves carefully out of his site, that the color uv their uniform might not awaken onpleasant refleckshens. So perfect, indeed, wus the arrangements that the railin uv the boat, which was originelly bloo, was kivered with gray cloth, and the eagle figgerhead uv the craft wus sawd off. This was rejected by a eminent Conservative uv Noo York, who has a large Southern trade, wich he didn't prajoodis by his course doorin the war. The ladies' cabin was originelly assigned to the party, but a female passenger bed no more regard for the comfort uv the master than to dis on the passage, and they were deprived uv it. The Conservative merchant insisted that the corpse be thrown overboard, but Mr. Davis, with a magnanimity wich was allus characteristick uv him, refoosed. "No," sed he, "let her rest there. I kin indoor the inconvenience, severe as it is. It is but one more attempt to break my sperit."

All the way up ther was most techin deference shown him. At every landin the people were assembled to grbet him wich he acknowledged it with oondescendsn I never saw off the stage. He conversed but little on the passage up. Ez the boat was a sweepin majestically past, pints made historicle by the events uv the great struggle, his eye wood brighten, of they wus such pints ez a Confedrit cood take pride in, and dim with tears of they wus pints at wich ther had bin reverses.

The most considrit preparashens hed bin made for his reseption. Ther was no irons onto him—the only guards in site was them wich was detailed to keep the crowd from annoyin him, and a carriage was in readiness, into wich we seated ourselves, and wus driven off at a dignified pace to that resort uv of the aristocracy uv Virginia—the Spottswood. Her mure considershun was shown. Mr. Davis being averse to walkin up stairs, a suit of rooms had bin prepared for him on the first floor, and the presence of Gen. Burton, uv the Federal army, being abnoxshus, he was assigned by the ex-President a room at the further end uv the corridor. His nerves being very sensitive heavy mattin wus laid down in all the halls, and the servants uv the house was especially directed to wear list slippers and to walk on tip toes.

I was invited to his room and was favored with a few minutes conversashun with the the first of Amerikans. Glancin out uv the winder his fine, soft gray eye restid on the roof uv Libby.

"Lies! lies!" sed he, angrily.

"Wat specil lies hev you reference to?" askt I.

"Them wich was publisht in the scurrilous reports uv of the Committee uv a unconstoosbunal Congris regardin the treatment of prisners in Libby. They asserted that the officers died becos they hed but ten feet by two, for sleepin, washin, cooking and eatin. They had that space, and wat more was necessary? Why give 'em room to sook when they hedn't anythin to cook? Wherefore room to eat of they hedn't anythin to eat? No, it feins. It wasn't the crowdin that perdoost the mortality."

Only wunst wus his buxum wrung, and that the Government cood not prevent. He was a stadin at the winder, gazin out upon Richmond, his mind revertin to the time when it was the Capital uv his Confederacy, when a procession passed with moosic, and flags and banners. With a shreek of anguish he buried his head in the curtins, and wept aloud. I rusht to the winder. It wus as I fered. Filin slowly by wus a procission of niggers who had passed that way purposly. "Merciful Heaven!" sez he, "has it come to this?" and he wus very reserved and deprest the balance of the day.

The next day the President wus taken to the Court. Ez he entered the room and glanced proudly over the awjeance, it wood her bin very difficult to her decided whether he wus a goin to try the Court or the Court him. But repressin himself he took his seat. Techin solisitood wus displayed in the Court-room for his comfort. A crack in the winder casin let in a draft uv cold air; he shuddered and the shudder run through the entire assemblage. The shudder uv the conservative merchant from Noo York wus trooly artistic. Cotton wus called for, when the conservative merchant's wife tore off one uv her buzums and stuffi the operator. Wus ther ever more teohin sacrifis? The President wept as he beheld it. On ascertainin the temperatoor which heat scoted his system, a thermometer wus brot, and the room wus kept at that precise degree.

There was sum triflin legal formalities gone through with, and the President's counsel made a motion that he be admitted to bail. There wus a stir in the Court. "Mak it a million!" sed one, "so that the craven North shel see how we kin take keer uv them we luv!" but Judge Underwood fixed it at $100,000, and brisk ar beas Schell, a Noo York Dimocrat, several Richmond Dimocrats and Horris Greely stept forred and signed!

Never shel I forgit the shout that ascended on Horris wus a signin his name.

"Three cheers for Jeff'son Greely and Horris Davis—one and inseparable, now and forever!" shouted one enthusiastic confederit.

"Immortality is yoors!" sed another, seesin him by the hand surjelly. "Jeff'son Davis is the big dog uv the age, and you, my deer sir, are now the tin kittle tied to his tale. Wat joy! Wat happiness! When posterity speaks uv him they'll speak uv yoo!"

I coodent restrane myself no more. Bustin into tears I fell into Greely's buzum and we embraced. Ez he hedn't his spectioles on he sposed it wus Davis himself, and he bustid into tears also, and there wus uv the most strikin tableaux ever exhibited. I got away afore he diskivered his mistake.

Here was the endin uv our troubles—the consummashen uv our hopes. Davis wus free! The pent up emoshens uv the people found vent. Ez he stopt into the street the people crowded to the carriage wich contained us and rent the air with cheers. We reacht the hotel, and after embracin his wife, a season uv religious exercises wus held. The clergyman who hed exclooosive charge uv Davis' piety durin the war, wus present, and he offered prayer. He prayed fervently that the Lord wood forgive the people uv the north for the wrong they hed done our sainted head uv the Federal Government who exposed him and the glorious cos, and of Divine mercy could stretch so far that he wood excuse the Kernel uv Michigan cavalry which hunted down the saint who wus now in our midst, and made him a captive. He prayed for forgiveness for the reckless men uv the north who invaded Virginy; for the newspaper conductors who hed aboosed him who is now with us, and particularly Horris Greeley, who hed this day in some measure atoned for his wickedness. He prayed that the blessins uv Hevin mite rest, first upon Richmond, then upon the balance uv Virginy, and afterwads upon the balance uv the Southern States, and he wound up with a fervent appeal that the Ethiopians, wich couldn't change their skins, might see the error uv their ways and return to their normal condishen.

After this the President received his friends.

I am not permitted to give more uv the President's plans than this: He will remane in seclooshun, and will take no part in politics until after his final acquittal in November. He dont feel at liberty to take hold uv the Government so long ez there is a torknickle charge agin him. Our friends in the Northern States who expected him to take the stump in their behalf this fall will be disappointed. I return to-morrow to Knoxville, Tennessee, to resume my duties as PETROLEUM V. NASBY, P. M., (wich is Postmaster,) and Professor in the Ham and Japeth Free Academy for the development uv the intellek uv all races irrespective uv color.

An Ohly Letter—A Distressed Wife to a Foolish Husband.

[From the Rochester Union.]

HENRIETTA, N. Y., March 2, 1867.

DEAR HUSBAND—I am quite out of patience with you and this nasty oil business. Don't tell me any more about your great privations and sacrifices. I have heard enough of that, and don't believe one word of it. If there is any one making sacrifices, it's me. To be shut up as I have been in the house a whole year, just for the want a new bonnet. It's all very well to say I shall have one when you strike oil. I should think it was about time you had, if you are ever going to; but I don't believe you ever will, and if you had a proper regard for your family you'd give up this foolish business and do something, so that your wife could appear as respectable as other people.

You discuss very learnedly about the oil business, as you call it. You have only to come here if you wish to hear all about oil breaks. I would just like you to hear all Miss T., the dressmaker; who put five hundred dollars (all the money she had in the world) into the dirty business; I guess you wouldn't care to say anything more about the breaks.

What do I care if the rocks do pitch East and West, and the Professor Richards' son says "the outer edge is a dyke," I just think him as big a fool as the rest of you oil minnies; and you would only be getting your deserts if you were all pitched in the dyke together.

I suppose you thought you'd excite my sympathy by writing such a long account about losing the rumor in your well, but you didn't. I only wished your grubs and sockets, as you call them, with yourself, were fastened there.

Legitimate business, is it? That's what my father used to say about the mulberry-tree speculation; but I guess he didn't think so when the Sheriff sold his farm from under him.

Living a very quiet and moral life, are you? It may be you do, but I know this much, your letters smell awful strong of whisky and tobacco. Want I should advise my friends who have money in the Savings Bank, who hold Government securities, to draw it out and invest in oil, eh? You must think I'm a fool.

What do you think I care if there are some Rochester lawyers putting down a well on Greer's Run, and you think them outside the break? Anybody would know from the looks of your wife that you were on the break. Don't tell me the old story—you'll soon have oil, and then we are to have such nice times—that you'll build a large house, and I shall have my carriage and horse, go to Saratoga and display my diamonds and costly dresses; but you don't fool me with such balderdash, I can tell you. What good does it do to you if your neighbor, Dr. Brown, has a fine show of oil, and if he hadn't busted his seed-bag he'd had a big well? I would say that any man who would stay away from his family two years ought to have his head busted. It is very little sympathy he would ever get from me.

I never heard anything about Sheriff Chapman getting up a company to cultivate nutmegs on a farm near the West Fork. As to the thousand questions in your last letter, I can't nor shan't answer them. You think to frighten me about your health. 'Don't flatter yourself I'll be uneasy on that account.

The fifty-cent shinplaster you sent me to pay for mending my shoes, was so dirty and filthy no one would take it, so you can just send me another. Till then, Your afflicted wife,

CARRIE.

A female teacher of a school that stood on the banks of a quiet English stream, once wished to communicate to her pupils an idea of faith. While she was trying to explain to them the meaning of the word, a small covered boat glided in sight along the stream. Seising upon the incident for an illustration, she exclaimed:

"If I were to tell you that there was a leg of mutton in that boat, you would believe me, would you not, without even seeing it yourselves?"

"Yes, ma'am," replied the scholars.

"Well, that is faith," said the schoolmistress.

The next day, in order to test their recollection of the lesson, she inquired:

"What is faith?"

"A leg of mutton in a boat," was the answer, shouted from all parts of the schoolroom.

DEATH OF A SCOTTISH VETERAN.—The Caledonian Mercury, which claimed to be the oldest newspaper in the Kingdom of Great Britain, and which for some months past was issued in the form of an evening half-penny paper, ceased to be published a few weeks since, after an existence —since 1662—of more than two centuries.

DRINKING.—A goose that sees another drink will do the same, though he is not thirsty. The custom of drinking for company, when drinking is indefensible and prejudicial, seems to be a case of the same kind, and to put a man, feathers only excepted, upon a footing with a goose.

DR. HENLEY'S
Fountain of Life!
THE ### GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER!

IN EVERY PROGRESSIVE SCIENCE PERIODS ARrive when a new direction is imparted to its course. Through the mere evolution of new facts shedding a light which changes the whole aspect of the science. The present is an epoch of this kind, and the Great Remedy, now offered to the public, in connection with the theory on which it is based, is destined to effect an entire revolution in the treatment of the diseases of by eradicating the disease entirely from the blood. The FOUNTAIN OF LIFE is composed entirely of vegetable extracts; it contains no Mercury or other mineral substance.

The Proprietor and Discoverer of this Sovereign Remedy CHALLENGES THE WORLD to furnish anything, from the days of Æsculapius down to the present time, in the arcana of Medical Science, which can vie with or excel the intrinsic properties of this Great Blood Purifier. Its value has been tested with the happiest effect in the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in the world. No matter what form the insidious disease of SCROFULA and KING'S EVIL may have assumed, it can in no way be more safely and certainly arrested in its progress than by HENLEY'S GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER. Thousands have been swept into their graves, who had they made a timely use of the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE, might now be enjoying the blessings of life and health. It regulates an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself. During the storm of dead of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE has stood the test trial, and not been found wanting.

☞ Dr. HENLEY guarantees to CURE any case of SCROFULA or KING'S EVIL in the world, and eradicate the disease entirely from the system, or no charge made—provided they will secure him his pay when they are cured.

FOR REFERENCE:

I would refer you to L. L. Peck, of Portland, Oregon, and numbers of others, as to what a miraculous effect it had in a short time, in cases that had baffled the skill of physicians for years.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,
616 KEARNEY STREET,
NEAR COMMERCIAL,
San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief is not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address Dr. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

Consultations FREE.

Prevention Better than Cure.
